The Ancient History of the Distinguished Surname

* KIRK ****

Though shrouded by the mists of time, the chronicles of Scotland reveal the early records of the Norman surname Kirk which ranks as one of the oldest. The history of the name is interwoven within the colourful plaid of Scottish history and is an intrinsic part of the heritage of Scotland.

Diligent analysis by professional researchers using such ancient manuscripts as the Domesday Book (compiled in 1086 by William the Conqueror), the Ragman Rolls, the Wace poem, the Honour Roll of the Battel Abbey, the Inquisitio, the Curia Regis, Pipe Rolls, the Falaise Roll, tax records, baptismals, family genealogies, and local parish and church records shows the first record of the name Kirk was found in Cumberland where they were seated from very early times and were granted lands by Duke William of Normandy, their liege Lord, for their distinguished assistance at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A.D.

Variable spellings of the name were typically linked to a common root, usually one of the Norman nobles at the Battle of Hastings. Your name, Kirk, occurred in many references from time to time, and variables included were Kirk, Kirkhoe, Kirkaugh, Kirko, Kirkoe, and many more. Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it sounded. It was not unlikely that a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a headstone which showed another. Preferences for different spellings were derived from a branch preference, to indicate a religious adherence or sometimes to show nationalistic allegiance.

The family name Kirk is believed to be descended originally from the Norman race. The Normans were commonly believed to be of French origin but were, more accurately, of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about the year 870 A.D., under their King, Stirgud the Stout. Later, under their Jarl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 940 A.D. The French King, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first Duke of Normandy. Duke William who invaded and defeated England in 1066, was descended from the first Duke Rollo of Normandy.

After the Conquest, Duke William took a census of most of England in 1086, it became known as the Domesday Book. By 1070, William's nobles were growing restive, dissatisfied with their grants of land. William took an army north, and laid waste most of the northern counties. King Malcolm Canmore of Scotland offered refuge to these nobles, granting them land. Later, King David, about 1160, also encouraged his Norman friends to come north to join the royal court and obtain lands.

The surname Kirk emerged as a notable Scottish family name in the county of Cumberland where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated with manor and estates in that shire. The original name Kirkhaugh was acquired by the Viponts, a noble family which came from Vipont near Lisieux in Normandy. In 1258 William of Kirkhaugh assumed that name and the lands and estates. They moved north into Scotland to the lands of Tuchadam and Chappel in the barony of Dunscore in Dumfriesshire. They later acquired the lands of Holywood and they intermarried with the Griersons of Barjarg and the name became shortened to Kirk and Kirke. Some branches of the name retained the name Kirkhoe. Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth had moved north and by 1600 even further north to Inveraray. They were registered as a border Clan in 1590 and in 1597. Of note amongst the family at this time was Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth.

The surname Kirk contributed much to local politics and in the affairs of England or Scotland. Later, in the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries the country was ravaged by religious and political conflict. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. The unrest caused many to think of distant lands.

Settlers in Ireland became known as the "Adventurers for land in Ireland". Essentially, they "undertook" to keep the Protestant faith, and became known as "the Undertakers". In Ireland they were numerous in Ulster and county Louth and in the former became known as the Quirkes.

The news about the attractions of the New World spread like wildfire. Many sailed aboard the fleet of sailing ships known as the "White Sails".

In North America, migrants which could be considered kinsmen of the surname Kirk, or variable spellings of that same family name included Christopher and Judith Kirk settled in Virginia in 1635; Grafton Kirk settled in Maryland in 1738; John Kirk settled in New England in 1698; James Kirke settled in Virginia in 1656; Christopher Kirke settled in the Barbados in 1663; Richard and John Kirke settled in Virginia in 1651; Thomas Kirke settled in Virginia in 1638.

From the port of arrival many settlers joined the wagon trains westward. During the American War of Independence some declared their loyalty to the Crown and moved northward into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists.

Meanwhile, the family name was noted in the social stream. There were many notables of this name, Kirk, Grayson Kirk, American Professor; Peter Kirk, British Journalist; Roger Kirk, American Diplomat; Russell Kirk, American Writer; Samuel Kirk, American Professor of Education; Dame Lucy Kirk; Alexander Kirk, U.S. Ambassador; Professor Geoffrey Kirk, Greek; Hon. Herbert Kirk, Northern Ireland Politician.

In the process of researching this distinguished family name we also traced the most ancient grant of Arms from the branches which developed their own Arms.

The most ancient grant of a Coat of Arms found was:

Red with a gold crozier crossed with a gold sword and at the top a green thistle.

The Crest was:

A crozier and a dagger crossed.

The ancient family Motto for this distinguished name was:

"Optimum Quod Primum"

  Condolence: Dear Aunt Jackey:

  I just wanted you, Roy and Cheri to know how very sorry I am about the passing of Uncle Tony. I wish I could be there with you all, but I also know this is a private time for family. Uncle Tony was one of the finest men I have ever met, and the way he loved his family was (and still is) beyond what you see every day. It is a legacy that he has left me, because I always aspired to have a husband that loved his family the way Uncle Tony did (and thankfully I found that). You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time, and I pray that God comforts you and gives you strength. God Bless You All!! I love you all and hope to see you soon.

  Always,
  Judy

  Condolence: I have alot of good memories of Uncle Tony. I spent alot of time with him when I was a kid. He was always willing to spend time with me fishing in the ponds or what ever I wanted to do. I remember riding in his panel van and "working" with him. It seemed like he always had a smile and was willing to help me in anything I tried. I remember him being a gentle, kind man with a big heart. I am sure he was a great Dad and Grandpa. Rest in peace Uncle Tony, We love you an pray for those who are hurting tonight.
